These are just a few mistakes
I would love to make, I would love
Take so close to home
Your body's right to feel
Toss them so unreal
But it isn't close to home

Come downside, I'd never forget
Just how official this may be
Counting all the waves, counting down the days
Till you'll be coming down
I'm still counting down

Don't you remember when
I was in your doorway?
Right where I said I'd be
Right where
I hope you remember this
Forever and always
Right where I said I'd be
Right where

I'm trembling from what you've done to me
Can't wait to flee, can't wait to finally
Make this hit so close to home
(Hit so close to home)
Make this hit so close to home
(Hit so close to home)

Sometimes I can feel the life
Sometimes I can feel more than death
It's like a game to me
Counting down the days
Till you'll be coming down
I'm still counting down

Don't you remember when
I was in your doorway?
Right where I said I'd be
Right where
I hope you remember this
Forever and always

Right where I said I'd be
Right where

Kiss me back, and burn, coming down
I'll just crash and burn, I'm coming down
I'll just crash and burn, I'm coming down
It's your touch that knocks me down
And your body that keeps me there
I'll just crash and burn, I'm coming down
It's your touch that knocks me down
And your body that keeps me there

Don't you remember when
I was in your doorway?
Right where
I hope you remember this
Right where

These are just a few mistakes
I would love to make, I would take
So they're so close to home
They're so close to home
