ENGLISH

Erase it all
Make it all faint, even the good memories
Anything left in your heart

That makes you cry is pain
In the memories the words left unsaid echo about
And my promises of forgetting you become faint
I'm sorry, I cannot cry out loud
Even if my heart bruises
I worry that you won't be able to forget me and remain heart broken
So please forgive me as I breakdown

I awake alone
I hope it doesn't feel awkward walking alone
Because I'm not next to you
I hope you learn, little by little, how to smile on your own
In the memories the words left unsaid echo about
And my promises of forgetting you become faint
I'm sorry, I cannot cry out loud
Even if my heart bruises
I worry that you won't be able to forget me and remain
heart broken
So please forgive me as I breakdown
I'm sorry, I cannot cry out loud
Even if my heart bruises
I worry that you won't be able to forget me and remain
heart broken
So please forgive me as I breakdown
