Don't be quiet, fools wait patiently
Stay unattached, young man, be cruel
'Cause if all the night brings on dangerous things
Go find your playthings 'round the pool

Summer is here, it's never forlorn
Till your days will disappear so forget it

It's not in her heart at last
It's not in her heart at last

Shallow water and lips up against your legs
If it's cold inside, it's only for a while
She'll say, "Come on let's swim again"
When never to me if she spots another friend, well

Then why should I care?
If nothing between us is round any ordinaire
'Cause there's plenty more

It's not in her heart at last
It's not in her heart at last

And once in a while
You'll ask me what's left in a name
And that's easier to just explain than remind
No we're not and never will

Not in her heart at last
It's not in her heart at last
Not in her heart at last
(There's nothing to say, it's not yours to decide)
It's not in her heart at last
(There's nothing to say, it's not yours to decide)
