(lil one)

Peek a boo look behind you
I told you I would find you now Need I remind you I swore that I would find you now Now here we are take a look up at the sky It's pitch-black no stars time for you to die
Why is what you ask me?
But then I ask you, why are you a bitch motherfucka then I blast you Send you far away to another land
Where the ghost give a toast to the dead man Shoulda been knowing the way I be flowin the way I be steppin and wreckin
These fools that be trippin I gotta be deep and I gotta be killin I gotta be feelin the feelin of murda Will startup the first to get shot up and caught up in all of my bizz
No one ever wins cause you were the one who was yappin and rappin about these sins
But no enemy could ever get ahead of me You chose to be where death went you tried to put that led in me
But you missed now you no longer exist
Here's a smoke full of death motherfucka take a hit

(chorus 2x)

any body due to go start a fire?
I don't give a fuck till I hear me the choir Anybody due to go commit arson?
I don't give a fuck I'll start fires in you coffin

(gelo)

Load the shotgun turn down the lights keep your lips tight
This night start a little more than a fistfight Ignite the earth with a curse with a curse of my wickedness
Fire in the sky burnin eyes of the witnesses
Let you live thrivin of your misery and pain Meant to be a strain for the mentally insane
But you be deranged it was creepin through the brain

I'm the keeper of the fame grim reaper is the name Man I'm takin as I'm steppin weapon get in the back of the car that I'm drivin Makin my way in the land of the fools never bruised only survivin Stayin alive and healthy wealthy maybe crazy all of the time all of the rhyme every line Givven em' reasons to hollow the pine Taken em' out I be bucken em' down Never no doubt I ain't fucken around Watchin em' shake in the bubbly ground Hear me screamin under the sound
Bound me with the sicko's
Writing sickos in the midnight
Boss of the loss toss souls that ever did right

(chorus x2)
