Dancing wish and melting kiss
I wrap my fleshless arms around her Come - the thaw, come within Come, my love - and melt around me.

She buried me I dropped my wish
And now as love's true ghost lies dying
I'll raise my fist and victory
Never allow this pain, it's clutches into me.

Hollowed dreams hollowed earth crumbling drive
We turn around step away and watch it all run down

Forcibly we make these dreams into something real A shattered cast a blackened mast a hail hung high in waning life

Dancing wish and melting kiss I wrap my fleshless arms around her
Kicking dusted dreams into the air I've come I've died
I've won
Come the thaw- come within- come my love- and melt around me.
Come and seethe, come to die, just to live it all again
