"Waiting"

Didn't notice for the first time
Then I turned around
And there was something real
Something real you can't hide

Takin time to pay you time
And attention
If there's something there
I feel there's something there
Inside

And I'm waitin' everyday
But you have never have the time
But this was love, love
Love

So many people come and go
But could one stay around
Just like I want you too
I really want you to real soon

All of those words that never fit
I'd always keep them
I would write it down
I'd put them in a song
My favorite song when I was down

And I'm waitin' everyday
But you have never got the time
For this love, love
Love

And I'm waitin' everyday
But you have never got the time
For this was love, love
Love

Yeah, I'm waitin' everyday
But you have never got the time
For this was love, love
Love
