Do you have to be so hard to get Especially with those emerald eyes
You might have been a neon lover
But you didn't have to advertise Come on, come on, well, come on

Oh, come on, you might have been a crack shot shooter
Oh, come on, hung up on your figurine
Oh, come on, under the cold and darkly sky Oh, come on, you're the only light I've seen, come on, well come on

And it happens every time, I'm still hanging on the line Don't want to go up and down, don't want to go up and down
Don't want to go up and down, don't want to go up and
down

Oh, come on, you don't have to be so touch Oh, come on, I'll tell you when I've had enough Oh, come on, you don't have to reek with charm Oh, come on, you won't have to twist my arm, come on, oh, come on

And it happens every time, I'm still hanging on the line
Don't want to go up and down, don't want to go up and
down
Don't want to go up and down, don't want to go up and
down

Don't want to go up and down, don't want to go up and
down
Don't want to go up and down, don't want to go up and down
