There's something I just gotta say
But I'm afraid things are gonna change
You know we've been friends forever
It's been going up inside of me
Now it's time for you to see
That we belong together

Liftin' on my own two feet,
Set it on the ground, baby
So let me tell you what it does to me

I feel like there's no gravity
There is no remedy for me
Like insanity tearin' me, changin' me (changin' me)
When I'm with you it feels just like
Like everything's right, this whole time
There's no gravity, tearin' me, changin' me
I've been denyin' it for too long
Lyin' to myself, but it's too strong
Look at me, I'm dying here
Cause I want us to be
More than friends you and me
Take this chance, levitate with me

Liftin' on my own two feet,
Set it on the ground, baby
So let me tell you what it does to me

I feel like there's no gravity
There is no remedy for me
Like insanity tearin' me, changin' me (changin' me)
When I'm with you it feels just like
Like everything's right, this whole time
There's no gravity, tearin' me, changin' me

Close my e1, clear my mind
I'm seeing everything so clearly
I should be your man
Show you now, like you never seen
Sweep you off your feet

Like there's no gravity
There is no remedy for me
Like insanity tearin' me, changin' me (changin' me)
When I'm with you it feels just like
Like everything's right, this whole time
There's no gravity, tearin' me, changin' me

I feel like there's no gravity
There is no remedy for me
Like insanity tearin' me, changin' me (changin' me)
When I'm with you it feels just like
Like everything's right, this whole time
There's no gravity, tearin' me, changin' me
