Feels like I'm dead to myself
Don't believe in me no more
I have broken my heart again
It is my destiny I swear to give up as well
And float along until this river ends
So who's gonna save the world for me
Who's gonna change (who's gonna change)
Who's gonna find a better way
And make it that way

We need a hero to save us from ourselves
Looking for a hero like nobody else
We need a hero but if we cant find one
I'll just do it myself I will I will

So much tragedy and heartache
It's too much to take
Feels like I'm gonna break
It's such a simple thing
Just To do any little thing
To help someone who's suffering
So who's gonna save the world for me

Who's gonna change (who's gonna change)
Who's gonna find a better way
And make it that way

We need a hero to save us from ourselves
Looking for a hero like nobody else
We need a hero but if we cant find one
I will do it myself I will I will
I will I will I will

Look at my hero

Looking for a hero to save us from ourselves
I need a hero like nobody else
We need hero but if we can't find one
I will do it myself
We need a hero to save us from ourselves
Looking for a hero like nobody else
We need a hero but if we cant find one

I will do it myself I will I will
I will I will I will
I will I will I will
