[Intro]

Psst... Hey, listen

I love my job, makes me feel like... Superman! (haha)

Can you fly? I can - wanna see?

[Chorus]

I.. am only entertainin' you, my goal is to stimulate makin' you high

And take you and I to a place you can't see

But I believe you can fly

I don't mean nobody harm I'm just partyin'

I'm not your dad, not your mom, not your guardian

Just a man who's on the mic so let me entertain you

(I'm here to save you

I've come here for the ride

So let me entertain you

And everything will be fine)

[Eminem]

My lyrical content is constantly under fire, no wonder why

Constantly bombed back to combat attacks to constant concepts

When lyrics are constantly took out of context

Failure to communicate with Congress has

Been a problem for the longest I guess but

Maybe one day we can make some progress

Food for thought see how long it takes to digest

Feelin' good when I should be ashamed

Shit I really shoulda fell but I stood, see I came

Like a flame in the night, like a ghost in the dark

There's a ray, there's a light, there's a hope, there's a spark

But when planets collide they'll never see eye-to-eye

Until they decide to set their differences aside

And this is why only one of us will survive

So children, follow my lead and feel the vibe because

[Chorus]

I am only entertainin' you

My goal is to stimulate makin' you high
And take you and I to a place you can't see
But I believe you can fly
I don't mean nobody harm I'm just partyin'
I'm not your dad, not your mom, not your guardian
Just a man who's on the mic so let me entertain you

(I'm here to save you
I've come here for the ride
So let me entertain you
And everything will be fine)

[Eminem]
My music can be slightly amusin'
You shouldn't take lyrics so serious it might be confusin'
Tryin' to separate the truth from entertainment
It's stupid ain't it? I get sick just tryin' to explain it
See I could sit and argue wit' you but it goes beyond
Just bein' a snot, pointy-nosed, bleach blonde
'Cuz I came here to uplift, let your woes be gone
Tell 'em to get fucked and just mosey on Constantly movin', constantly usin'
The Constitution as a form of restitution
Bless the children, nothin' less than brilliant
"Let Me Entertain You" like Robbie Williams
I'll be here when y'all are gone rebuildin'
World revolvin', still evolvin', still Slim
How many kids'll copy? Probably millions
But I'ma do this as a fuckin' hobby 'til then 'cuz

[Chorus]
I am only entertainin' you
My goal is to stimulate makin' you high
And take you and I to a place you can't see
But I believe you can fly
I don't mean nobody harm I'm just partyin'
I'm not your dad, not your mom, not your guardian
Just a man who's on the mic so let me entertain you

(I'm here to save you
I've come here for the ride
So let me entertain you
And everything will be fine)

[Eminem]
My lyrical content contains subject matter that sucks up all these fucked up
Young kids at an alarmin' rate, common denominate
Add it up, and you see just why I dominate
I try to stimulate but kids emulate and mimic every move you make, Slim, you great!

But wait, can't you see I'm only hear to entertain?
I gotta be the one to go against the grain
'Cuz now I see it, feel it, live it but it's inhumane
For me to see you be influenced then pretend you ain't
But they don't understand that I been through pain
If you get to know me I can be a friend you gain
But you can't just stand there and try to judge
It hurts but your jealousy prolly tears you up inside as much
And as such, I pleasure every button that I touch
I treasure every glutton that I punish in my lust but

[Chorus]

I am only entertainin' you
My goal is to stimulate makin' you high
And take you and I to a place you can't see
But I believe you can fly
I don't mean nobody harm I'm just partyin'
I'm not your dad, not your mom, not your guardian
Just a man who's on the mic so let me entertain you

(I'm here to save you
I've come here for the ride
So let me entertain you
And everything will be fine)

[Eminem Singing Backwards]

(I'm here to save you
I've come here for the ride
So let me entertain you
And everything will be fine)
