I have been here many times
I have been on the edge for a while Looking for something but don't know if it's coming oohh
I have both forgotten memories
And sometimes I dreamt of how these smiles

Here I go again
Asking myself a thousand questions
And here I go again
Telling myself a thousand lies
If you'd just listen, listen to me

Dear you
It feels like getting hurt is my second nature
Dear you
I feel like I'm a failure
I may love you much just let me get to learning
Where are you now
Dear you, dear you

I'll be high and I'll be low
And I will be anything just to get to talk to you
They told me that love was magical and grand oohh

But nothing compared to what they say
If only I get to hold your hand

Here I go again
Asking myself a thousand questions
And here I go again
Telling myself a thousand lies
If you'd just listen, listen to me

Dear you
It feels like getting hurt is my second nature
Dear you
I feel like I'm a failure
I may love you much just let me get to learning
Where are you now

Dear you
It feels like getting hurt is my second nature
Dear you
I feel like I'm a failure
I may love you much just let me get to learning
Where are you now
Dear you, dear you
Dear you, dear you...
