Hummmmmmm

Sister give me some water give me something to drink

Are you not well is it the way that I think

Have I betrayed you did you want me to go

Hummmmmmm

Brother would you forgive me did you want me around

Maybe if I would never make a sound

Won't you believe in me an allow me to know

Heya heya heya heya ya

But it's just a matter of time when you just don't want
anymore

And I got to get out of town what are you calling me for

I wish that I could but do you wish that I might

Oohhoooh I never said I was right

Oohhoooh

Hummmmmmm

Everyday is a battle everyday is a fight

Out in the cold we're never warm in the night

But it doesn't matter I don't care anymore

Hummmmmmm

Sister give me some water I was only a kid

Why did you hate me for the things that I did

Won't you believe me allow me to know

Heya heya heya heya ya

But it's just a matter of time when you just don't want
anymore

And I got to get out of town what are you calling me for

I wish that I could but do you wish that I might

Oohhoooh I never said I was right

Oohhoooh

Sister give me some water give me time to think

Leave me alone cause I have nothing to bring

I just hate it I can't take anymore

But it's just a matter of time when you just don't want
anymore

And I got to get out of town what are you calling me for
I wish that I could but do you wish that I might Oohooooooh I never said I was right

But it's just a matter of time when you just don't want
anymore
And I got to get out of town what are you calling me for
I wish that I could but do you wish that I might Oohooooooh I never said I was right
Oohooooooh
