When it's over you were waiting for something else
When it's over you were waiting to say goodbye
And I wanna see how I'm falling away again
I remember you, and every time I see that were I could be
Wont ever change for to long

I remember all those things you told me
Wispering in the night and all the times that I forgot
you
Maybe for far to long

All of these things that I think about far to late
Would it change if I could hear you that day
And I wanna see how I'm falling away again
I remember you

I remember all those things you told me
Wispering in the night and all the times that I forgot
you
Maybe for far to long

And all this time
All this time between us
We're down in the dark and the dead line
Were I belong, were I belong
And I'm lost in the darkest night time

When it's over you were waiting for something else
When it's over you were waiting to say goodbye
And every time I see that were I could be
Wont ever change for to long
When it's over

I remember all those things you told me
Wispering in the night and all the times that I forgot
you
Maybe for far to long

I remember all those things you told me
Wispering in the night and all the times that I forgot
you

Maybe for far to long
