Relax this assumption of my utilization
Aiming to hold more, playing so for
My sake take it, sworn to make it
Affecting what's my living policy
Blazing fire, situation dire
My perspective flipped around

Well I can't see clearly If I nearly
Made my way across the ocean
Can't come down
Down to the ground
Playing my way just so I can
Just so I can

Well it's a new zone negative tone
Roarin' through my present future
Every detail see what entails
Dramatic decrease makes it all pure
Blazing fire, situation dire
My perspective flipped around

Well I can't see clearly If I nearly
Made my way across the ocean
Can't come down
Down to the ground
Playing my way just so I can
Just so I can

Relax this assumption of my utilization
Aiming to hold more, playing so for
My sake take it, sworn to make it
Affecting what's my living policy
Affecting what's my living policy

Well I can't see clearly If I nearly
Made my way across the ocean
Can't come down
Down to the ground
Playing my way just so I can
Just so I can

Light it up, throw it out

Turn it on, break it down
Wrap it, lick it, burn it, flick it
Tie it up and pass it here
Making cash disappear
Made of glass, made of wood
Run away if I could
Give it up
Give it up

Just so I can [x4]
