Just In Case
"Enough"

"Enough" by Just in Case

We tried to hide on some peoples face
Drove for a mile but gone nowhere
Were all the signs still astray?
Did I missed the points of getting there

It doesn't really matter anyway
It wouldn't make a difference if I'd stay
For all of the times that I've been scared of falling
Could these be enough?

Chorus;
Are we getting there somehow?
Can you really hear/feel me now?
Are we making sense so far?
Cause I am lost again...

Hold-fast the time cause it's unfair
Burn all the lies when I'm afraid
Could you be the fire that saves someone's fate?
Then I could be the one to know it all.
