She never said that she was going
And now I can't believe it's true
She could have left a note or something
Before she passed on through
Now there's a hole where she used to be
But I guess it's for the best
Now that my woman's out of here
I can concentrate on the rest
We had good times and we had bad
And sometimes
Sometimes she made me mad
And it sounds just like a cliché
But right now
That's the only way
I can get my message through

[CHORUS]

I ain't too sad you're gone
I ain't too sad you're gone
I ain't too sad you're gone
When all is said and done
Well you sang my favourite song to me
And I played my guitar
And then we shared a Kodak moment
Before getting back in the car
We had ups and we had downs
And she gave me the run around
And it sounds just like cliché
But right now
That's the only way
I can get my message through

[CHORUS]

I ain't too sad you're gone
I ain't too sad you're gone
Well you said I would not need you
And now I
Ain't too glad you're wrong

So why am I crying all the time?

Feels like I'm dying all the time
