I hold my breath 'til I pass out
You'll choke until your lungs give out
These words are not worth telling at all
But I messed up and now I'm stuck
In this mess that I created
And it feels like today
The whole world is watching me

Take a deep breath and let it out slow

[Chorus:]

Faster, faster please tell me all of this
I gotta know before I react to it
Take a deep breath and let it out slow
Take a deep breath and let it out slow
I'll cross my fingers cause I'm gonna need all of it
Any luck that I can get I'm not done with this
Take a deep breath and let it out slow
Take a deep breath and let it out slow

And I know I've said this once before
But don't worry I won't lock the door
'Cause I know you'll always come back around
But I messed up and now I'm stuck
In this mess that I created
And it feels like today
The whole world is watching me

Take a deep breath and let it out slow

[Chorus]

The whole world's eyes are on me
The whole world's eyes are on me

[Chorus]
