Could you tell me if you've ever really loved and lost
And tell was it worth it cost when you
You said goodbye

And if your love was just a game
Then who's the one to take the blame
When you
You can't sleep at night

Cause deep inside I'm burning up from you
You let me down so many times, it's true
Play with fire and you're gonna lose
I'm burning up
Burning up from the thought of you

From you

You walk the streets at night alone
Then she calls you on the telephone
Because she
She can't sleep at night

And now the night comes to an end
As she grabs me by the hand
She wants to know
Do I want come home tonight
Her bed is cold
She don't like to be alone

Cause deep inside I'm burning up from you
You let me down so many times, it's true
Play with fire and you're gonna lose
I'm burning up
Burning up from the thought of you

Just take me somewhere far away from here
To that room where I won't show my fears
I don't want you to know the truth
I'm burning up
Burning up from the thought of you

Cause deep inside I'm burning up from you

You let me down so many times, it's true
Play with fire and you're gonna lose
I'm burning up
Burning up from the thought of you

Just take me somewhere far away from here
To that room where I won't show my fears
I don't want you to know the truth
I'm burning up
Burning up from the thought of you

Burning up from the thought of you
Burning up from the thought of you
Play with fire and you're gonna lose
I'm burning up
Burning up from the thought of you

Burning up from the thought of you
Burning up from the thought of you
Don't want you to know the truth
I'm burning up
Burning up from the thought of you
