I'm watching your eyes move slowly up and down my silhouette
And I wonder if you get it yet
This is the last time I crawl away on broken knees
And don't you wish it would all be ok

Promise me, you'll forget me
You said as you walked away
Don't hold on please, let go of me
You make it so hard to leave

And I cant breathe without you here, for fear Ill catch your scent
And we both know how bad I get,
I don't do well or dwell in change
And don't you know that 3 small words could make this all ok

Promise me, you'll forget me
You said as you walked away
Don't hold on please, let go of me
You make it so hard to leave

You promised me
You'll never forget me
You promised me
You'll never forget

Promise me, you'll forget me
You said as you walked away
Don't hold on please, let go of me
You make it so hard to leave

You promised me ( You promised me, You'll forget me)
You said as you walked away
You promised me (You promised me, You'll forget me)
