I'm so tired of facing my whole life on my own!
I had four shoes standing in my hall,
But not anymore...
I'm too smart for my family and everyone can tell,
When I speak with dad, it feels like throwing coins into a well!

I got friends too, but I'll make it on my own!

Don't ask me questions,
My answers are so hard to understand!
And you won't understand!

I'm so tired of faking smiles, pretendin' like I care!
Even though I'd like to leave them all, you know I'd never dare...
It's time to wake up and realise that this world is getting small!
But I want it all and I know that they will lead me to my fall!

I got friends too, but I'll make it on my own!

Don't ask me questions,
My answers are so hard to understand!
Don't make decisions,
Ask me first and follow my command!
You will understand!
Don't ask me questions,
- You will understand!
My answers are so
- You will understand!
Hard to understand!
- You will understand!

Don't make decisions,
- You will understand!
Ask me first and
- You will understand!
Follow my command!
- You will understand!
