If I could see your eyes
I would dream about them every night
If I could see your smile
I would dream about it every night

Tell me am I right?
Should I surrender you, without a fight
Tell me is it true?
I'm not happy about it, I'm feeling blue, how about you

Tell me can you help me, am I wrong or or am I right
Tell me can you help me, I've been waiting all my life

I don't know what you want of me, but I'm scared of falling apart.
I don't know what you want of me, but I wanted this
since the start

If I should hold you tight
Would you look right back, with a smile
Please don't make me sad
Just tell me that, you want me back

Tell me can you help me, am I wrong or or am I right
Tell me can you help me, I've been waiting all my life

I don't know what you want of me, but I'm scared of
falling apart.
I don't know what you want of me, but I wanted this
since the start!

I don't know what you want of me, but I'm scared of
falling apart.
I don't know what you want of me, but I wanted this
since the start!

Ooooh
