Welcome to a beautiful nightmare
You can't escape, 'cause it's reality
Marching through a wasted land
Dead bodies pave the way you walk

Seeking the unknown
Once again you kill the nameless one
Waiting for the next command
Just another bloody massacre

I once was your victim
You splattered my brain
With violent oppression
I now will return

Back from the grave
Live undead
Evil reborn

Live undead

Meet me in a moonless night
I suck your blood and eat your entrails
Feasting on your lifeless corpse
I gnaw the meat off the god damn bones

Though it may seem a little late
I enjoy the bitter sweet taste
Of dissipated revenge
