I still remember like it was yesterday
And we were together
But now you seem so far away
And I can't see myself without you
Without you

But now you're gone
And it's been so long
And I will not forget
The memories of the good times
And the times we shared regret

And I saw you today
With a TV screen and those old tapes
I would never let you erase
And I can't see myself
And I can't see myself without you
Without you

But now you're gone
And it's been so long
And I will not forget
The memories of the good times
And the times we shared regret

I wish I had the chance to say goodbye
To hear those words come out from you, "Don't cry"
To look you once more in the eyes
With life right now I want to say goodbye
"Goodbye"
