To the darkness comes a light
That won't stop for anything or anyone
It shines the truth, the light of the Son
So be ready for it has just begun

We will show this light to everyone
And won't stop until our job is done
One day all will kneel to the Son
And all will see the invisible king

They can't hold us down
The won't put us out
They can't hold us down
Hold us down

We won't be shut down
Please don't tell us
Don't tell us that we don't belong
We will fight until the end of days
For what we believe in the right way
People doubt Him, well let them say
Whatever they wanna say
