Our little secret is between you and me
So please promise to let this go let it be
Forget everything you ve heard and seen
Cuz we gotta stick together gotta stay as a team

Well I ll break the walls of family secrecy
What s wrong is wrong I ll never let it be
I won t waste away my life with this shame
I ll speak the truth and free myself from this game
So now you call me a trader, hater
You just see me as a conflict bringer
All I wanna do is set us free can t you see
It holds us down, barely lets us breath

Well I see through this game
And I don t wanna play

Well I m comin out of the hidden lies
I won t lie and hide because of family ties
I ve had enough I want you to realize
If you could only see right through my eyes
Trust me, listen to me, do what s right
Or you ll never free your heart from your mind
Rise up and you will find
Let the truth loose, don t protect the lies

Well I guess I didn t know how to say no
Always kept it to myself but now I have to say no
Cuz I say so, we be frontin from the get go
Out of love to all of the family cuz we must
