"You've Got To Righten That Wrong"

You've got to righten that wrong someday
Years may pass but you cant get away
If you do wrong today the price you must pay
You've got to righten that wrong someday

Do not lie or gossip on the folks whom you know
But do good to all while you may
Did smile while their face and frown when they go
You've got to righten that wrong someday

You hear Jesus pleading to come to the fold
The time is fleeting away
He will strengthen your spirits and sweeten your soul
Why not righten these wrongs today
