In Your Inner You
Justin

And I look you now
and you pretend not to see look me secretly
and then turn away Looking through your dark eyes trying to find you
I am looking for you
I seek the inner you

I will then know
if you still love me
love me so
that it all used to be
I will then know
cos I see it in your eyes
in your inner you

You came then but you didn't notice that I was there I know you pretended it You knew that I was there You know I'll always be there for you and your trouble Though I said I love her she exploded my bubble

I will then know
if you still love me
love me so
that it all used to be
I will then know
cos I see it in your eyes
in your inner you

I will then know
if you still love me
love me so
that it all used to be

I will then know
cos I see it in your eyes
in your inner you
