Dear princess, dear darling
I promise I will be your prince charming
I know that you want the perfect wedding
You deserve a storybook ending
You deserve the best baby, oh yeah,
Yeah so where you wanna go, i can take you there we can fly
Across the globe
Baby don't be scared
Don't be scared
Baby don't be scared, no, no
You deserve a story book ending, fairytale, fairytale You deserve a story book ending, fairytale, fairytale Let's take a ride, let that air hit you Look at my eyes, let that stare hit
You put my hand on your cheek let that hit

Cause you gonn be scared when you know that I ain't there
With you but girl
When it comes to loving isn't true that less is more
If I'm away girl and you miss me that's what jets are
