Well, Iâ€™m talking to myself not you so donâ€™t get mad â€™Cause I need a friend who won't talk back And he is letting me finally see some sense And I know I should be mending fences but why would I do that?
When I wonâ€™t feel alone as long as you donâ€™t come back

And I know that youâ€™ll be picking through the bones of me
Trying to find a heart of stone Well, if itâ€™s there throw it at my picture â€™Cause I know I should be building bridges but why would I do that?
When I wonâ€™t feel alone as long as you donâ€™t come

Donâ€™t come back, donâ€™t come â€™round crying Whatever the angle, I ainâ€™t buying Whatever the accent youâ€™ve been trying

So Iâ€™m talking to myself not you and it ainâ€™t so bad
At least I donâ€™t put myself down And sometimes I even sound like you And I know I should be making amends but why would I do that?
When I wonâ€™t feel alone
I wonâ€™t feel alone
No, I wonâ€™t feel alone as long as you donâ€™t come
