I wonder how I ever made it through the day
How did I settle for a world in shades of grey
When you go in circles all the scenery looks the same
And you don't know how
When I looked into your eyes
Where the road stretched out in front of me
And I realized

I never lived before your love
I never felt before your touch
And I never needed anyone to make me feel alive
But then again I wasn't really living
I never lived before your love

I wanted more than just an ordinary life
All of my dreams seemed like castles in the sky
I stand before you and my heart is in your hands
And I don't know how
I survived without your kiss
Cause you've giving me a reason to exist

I never lived before your love
I never felt before your touch
And I never needed anyone to make me feel alive
But then again I wasn't really living
I never lived
I never lived before your love
I never lived before your love
And I don't know why
While the sun decides to shine
That you breath your love into me just in time
I never lived before your love
I never felt before your touch
I never needed anyone to make me feel alive
But then again I wasn't really living
I never lived before your love
