If love is a journey
You're my destination
Lovesick with no cure
You're my salvation
All reason, no rhyme
Love had us both blind
I put you on a pedestal so high
When I fell I didn't even hear you cry

Had to find my way
Had to find my way
Had to find my way,
In a cold, cold world
But I'm missing you
Yes I'm missing you
Oh I'm missing you
I hope you miss me to

Heartbroken, heartbreaking
Are the roads that I keep on taking
Trying to get you out of my mind
Keeps on tracking me back in time
Oh we built all the sand castles into the sky
Then a storm came in
And time was a tide
Oh just like a burning house on fire
I just stood there watching our love die
No oo oo

I had to find my way
Oh I had to find my way
Had to find my way
In a cold, cold world
But I'm missing you
Woah oh oh oh I'm missing you
Oh I'm missing, missing you
Yea, oh yes I'm missing you
Yo oh oh I'm missing, missing, missing, missing you
I hope you miss me too
