We've been talking about this thing called love
Probably something you've been dreaming of
It's the one thing I can make it right
It's like your coffee in the morning light

It's the sweetest thing you've ever seen
Orange tree among the evergreens
When it looks like you can count me out
I'll bounce right back with a sparkle in my eye

You always get me high
I get lonesome sometimes
The sun and the sand and you and I
It's perfect sometimes

You want to feel your feet in the sand
Wiggle your toes... We can
Be on a sun-drenched island far out in the sea
A perfect place with the sweet melody

Just look around, the oldest sound
A coconut be falling from a tree to the ground
I see the sun setting in your eyes
I steal a kiss beneath the starry skies

You always get me high
I watch the waves roll by
The sun and the sand and you and I
It's perfect sometimes

Just like a movie scene
Where you are the beauty queen
I'll be your leading man
We can go up and live our lives
Warm in island paradise
And we can have our sometimes anytime
Every day, every night
What do you say?

We've been talking about this thing called love
Probably something you've been dreaming of
It's the one thing I can make it right

It's like your coffee in the morning light

It's the sweetest thing you've ever seen
An orange tree among the evergreens
When it looks like you can count me out
I'll bounce right back with a sparkle in my eye

You always get me high
I get lonesome sometimes
The sun and the sand and you and I
It's perfect sometimes

It's perfect sometimes
You always get me high
It's perfect sometimes (It's perfect sometimes)
It's perfect sometimes
