

Justin Moore "Grandpa"

Visit "Grandpa" on MotoLyrics.com

You stood on that bank when I got baptized
Gave me a thirty thirty when I turned nine
At sixteen you caught me drinking out in the barn
I could hear you cheering when we won state
And you held my hand at Grandma's grave
And I'll always be thankful you never sold the farm

Chorus:

Grandpa you stood so tall
Chewed that Red Man, wore overalls
You were the same man on Sunday morning as
Saturday night
Five foot six to the top of your hat
But when you talked bout the war thought you were
Superman
American born simple man with a southern drawl
You walk the walk, you talk the talke, Grandpa

You still swear Roosevelt was the best
That a home grown tomato tastes better than the rest
And fifty years goes too fast with a woman you love
Well this life I've chose is gettin' busy now
And when I walk up on your front porch
It's just like I'm still young

Chorus:

Grandpa you stood so tall
Chewed that Red Man, wore overalls
You were the same man on Sunday morning as
Saturday night
Five foot six to the top of your hat
But when you talked bout the war thought you were
Superman
American born simple man with a southern drawl
You walk the walk, you talk the talke, Grandpa

Yeah American born a dirt road man with that slow southern drawl
Now keep walkin' the walk and talkin' the talk Grandpa

