its been a hard year alotta dead end roads its been too long since ive seen mammas face just a couple more turns, there aint no place like home heaven aint that far away its a dirt road, a fishin pole, a cold beer sittin on a tailgate its an old church, a kind word, its where i was born and raised

heaven aint that far away
heaven aint that far away

guess ya dont know wacha got, but ya got it till its gone life just goes in circles back to yesterday just touchin this stretch of highway, i feel like i belong
heaven aint that far away

raised

there aint nothin in this world that can make me feel like whats over that next hill
