There is a King who lives on the top of the hill there is a king who had everything led by a star, the light in the sky he can't see it

There is a man who lives by the river he is a man surrounded by light she is alone bathing in the river he watches her

Chorus
Diamond in the sky
will she be mine
lead her through the night
she is blind

over the hill and beyond the river seven unwoken dreams are there when she awakes she dreams more then ever he dreams with her

ooooooo

she is blind
