My baby is a rebel
She's a rebel, I was wrong
In between her harm we triggers
And the pounding of the one

I'm reaching up towards the heavens
But I'm holding on to hell
You see facing her in heaven
Would be far worse than the devil himself

I know I'm foolish, I know I broke your heart
I also know we can improve this
I'll take you to the stars, we'll fall in love like rain
And I'll hold you at the bay, we're rising up again
We're at the stars again

Oh no darling, woman
Listen to me please
Every time we touch I felt it
Baby, please don't do this

Woman, put your weapon
Woman, put your weapon
Woman, put your weapon down

Woman, put your weapon
Woman, put your weapon
Woman, put your weapon down

Baby, you're an angel
I vow that you're the one
But she may be so unstable
I swear I tried to run

But I was sinking in the quicksand
Baby, I'm alone man
Reaching out for your hand
I promise nothing has changed

Remember high school
Remember our first date
You and me in my room

You said you felt the same

Making love and spending time
Underneath the moonshine
Baby, you're the real kind
Baby, you're the real kind

Oh no, darling, woman
Listen to me please
Every time we touched I felt it
Baby, please don't do this

Woman, put your weapon
Woman, put your weapon
Woman, put your weapon down

Woman, put your weapon
Woman, put your weapon
Woman, put your weapon down
Down, down, down, down, down, down

Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down

Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down

My baby is a rebel
She's a rebel, I was wrong
In between her harm we trigger
And the pounding of the one

I'm reaching up toward the heavens
But I'm holding on to hell
You see facing her in heaven
Would be if I was the devil himself

Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down

Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down

Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down

Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down

Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
Put your weapon, put your weapon down
