More I need to work
Get up out your head
The sun will soon be rising
And the light's no longer red

We walk the street
We ain't got time to play
No, no, no, no

Standing for our reasons
Our time has come at last
To bring it down to bottom
And let the wind show us the path

This time we can see
We ain't got time to play
No, no, no, no

Rising comes the moon and the sun
I'll be alright for now, I'll be alright for now
A thousand buffalo on the run
Stand up and fight for now, stand up and fight for now

Over any distance
The sun will disappear
And darkness with its powers
Taking over anything that fears

You plant that seed
The light is on the way
Oh, oh, yeah, yeah, yeah

Not for another moment
We must not divide
Harmony is what we need
Between both you and I

Wind, land and sea
The light is on the way
Yeah, yeah

Rising comes the moon and the sun

I'll be alright for now, I'll be alright for now
A thousand buffalo on the run
Stand up and fight for now, stand up and fight for now

Hold my hand, I know you're the one
Stand up and fight for now, stand up and fight for now

'Cause what we see holding, that's how it should be, yeah

Rising comes the moon and the sun
I'll be alright for now, I'll be alright for now
Ten thousand buffalo on the run
Stand up and fight for now, stand up and fight for now

Hold my hand I know you're the one
Stand up and fight for now, stand up and fight for now
The rising of our generation
Stand up and fight for now, stand up and fight for now

Fight for now, fight for now
Fight for now, fight for now
