she's got a mountain for a name she's got my city by the rain she's got a perfect memory cars a 1973
slow down, slow down

tonight the canyons made of glass why can't i stop and let you pass slow down, we got to slow down she's got the candles by the bed beside the books she's never read i hear her singing in the chambers of the sea honey, everyone's in love with you but me everyone but me

i don't believe you that its better by the sea honey, everyone's in love with you but me
everyone but me
