We ain't got to reinvent the wheel

You've got that friday after, noon have to work look in your eyes.

All day you've been racing, running crazy, million things on your mind.

Just take a breath, take a break from saving the world
Take my hand and slide right beside me
Beside me girl.

Top down, open road,
You and me all alone,
No big plans, no big deal.
All you got to think about is right here, right now,
And how this feels, don't worry cause tonight,
We ain't got to reinvent the wheel.

Sometimes same, old same old,
Sun after sundown stars, taking its toll
It gets you think where all the fun and adventure go.
Can't you see it, can't you feel its still there
It's as simple as the wind blowing, wind blowing through our hair.

Top down, open road,
You and me all alone,
No big plans, no big deal.
All you got to think about is right here, right now,
And how this feels, don't worry cause tonight,
We ain't got to reinvent the wheel.

Top down...

Top down, open road,
You and me all alone,
No big plans, no big deal.
All you got to think about is right here, right now,
And how this feels, don't worry cause tonight,
We ain't got to reinvent the wheel.
