You're still captivat' even though its been so long,
You used to love me, tell me baby what went wrong,
Cos now you're much to the beat of a different song,
I try to understand that we needed space,
But everywhere I turn I see your face,
And I've been waiting for you to come home,
Cos I don't want to be alone,
I still love you,

(Chorus)

Why did you take away our love?
When did you think to just give up?
How am I supposed to carry on now, without you?
You are my light

I have changed, girl, since I last saw you,
But when you left you don't know what you put me through,
But my heart's still racing just being next to you,
I can't escape the magic in your eyes,
Is there a way to make you realise?
There's no-one more special to my heart,
But you want us to be apart,
I still love you,

(Chorus)

Why did you take away our love?
When did you think to just give up?
How am I supposed to carry on now, without you?

You are my world,
You mean everything to me,
You're the air I breathe, the song I sing,
You were my Queen, I was your King,
But if we can try to work it out,
You'll show the world what love is about,
Baby, come home cos I can't take no more of this loneliness,
And emptiness,

(Chorus)

Why did you take away our love?
When did you think to just give up?
How am I supposed to carry on now, without you....

Why did you take away our love?
When did you think to just give up?
How am I supposed to carry on without you?
You are my, you are my light
