Well I take my time a-comin', take my time a-leavin'
If you ask me why I'm goin', tell you when it's needed More than you know I could never be what you need

If you ain't glad I'm leaving, girl you know you oughta
be Cause I lie, I cheat, I gamble, and I steal from many men
Where from Georgia to Los Angeles, Texas up to Maine
I'm a wanted man
Is that the kind of life you want to live baby?
If you ain't glad I'm leaving, well you know you oughta

So what's a girl like you, want a man like me Never know what I'm gonna do, if you never know where I'll be Now I know right now, baby, though it might seem wrong, yeah
But you don't wake up in the morning, thanking to your Heavens that I'm gone

Well I'm so good, don't take it too bad, ain't nothing you could do Well I ever fall in love and, keep it on the move It's just my way. I ain't trying to be mean, baby

If you ain't glad I'm leaving, girl you know you oughta
Well if you ain't glad I'm leaving, girl you know you oughta be
