I hope so bad that you were just waiting
And I hope so bad, not too much hold the phone
You need someone out there waiting
To give you an extra hand one more time yeah

Chorus:

You were always out of reach
You were always gone
I was alright out of sync
It has gone wrong

The extra step that you don't want to take
Could be the step that breaks my fall breaks my back
The times that you smile don't fool me
Except one time that you made me believe it

Chorus

I always thought that you would be leaving tomorrow
And I always knew that you would be leaving tomorrow
So now I know that you will leave, leave me tomorrow

Chorus x2
