There's a girl that I want to be mine
I wanna have her all the time.
I'm gonna make her see what's here,
So she will always be near.
We laugh about snickers bars,
She's gonna be a TV star
And our style's just too tight,
Yeah, well that's how I could be right.

But any day now, in some old fashioned way,
I'm gonna let her know, her profile makes me smile.
And any day now, in some old fashioned way,
I'm gonna let her know, her profile makes me smile.

She likes to shop and she loves my ring,
One day I'm gonna take her skiing.
Cause you know that we can always have fun,
If it means that we have to run.
I can't help but say things twice,
Well I can't help to say things twice.
And Dr.Suess, she likes to read him,
She loves listening to .....

And any day now, in some old fashioned way,
I'm gonna let her know, her profile makes me smile.
And any day now, in some old fashioned way,
I'm gonna let her know, her profile makes me smile.

And any day now, in some old fashioned way,
I'm gonna let her know...
Well any day now, in some old fashioned way,
I'm gonna let her know, her profile makes me...

Now that you've heard this song, I hope you think of me
And when you hear this song, I hope it makes you see
That the one who sings this song is only here to be
A short supply (a short supply)of what you need.

Any day now in some old fashioned way,
I'm gonna let her know, her profile makes me smile.
Any day now, in some old fashioned way,

I'm gonna let her know, that I will make her smile,
Yeah I will make her smile, I'm gonna make her smile.
Oh please won't you let me make you.....
