It's a shame baby nothing that you could do things change babe such as my feelings for you

Just look foolish when you put me out cuz nothing gonna change the way you feel about me now

When you lay down to sleep that's when it'll hurt the most when you wake up alone and you still smell my smoke so drink up baby and push me out nothing's gonna change the way you feel about me
I know it's wrong I forgot to admit I said some things that I shouldn't have said

I never love you, I never love you I never love, never love, never love so as the days turn to weeks you'll come to forget the broken heart you thought would always be will mend so pack up baby try and put me out
