We're all searching for ways to make things better
By changing this by changing that
Perfect can't wait can't wait till later
Things don't move at the tip of your hat
So lean back and breathe real deep
Smile wide and relax your feet

Chorus:

Look around your perfect world
Reach out and grab what's there
You don't have time to waste your time
So take your chance or say goodbye

Don't look back and say you're sorry
Cause time will tell what you have done
If you hang your coat and walk away
Don't step back or look my way

Chorus:

Things look so normal
When you're standing in the dark
But I'll shine my light for you
No matter how hard, no matter how hard

Chorus:

Your wristwatch has run for days
So stop your shadow from running astray
Your reflection don't mean a thing
If it ain't starring back at you

Chorus:
