You thought that you'd be hurt in the process
Of leaving it all behind
What did they tell you to make it warped with more time?
So sleep with one eye open, so I can see those baby blues

You seemed so fine that last time I saw you
You seemed so fine watching the sunset
You looked so bored on the arm of that guy
How can you say all you can do is cry?
(All you can do is cry)

What do you know, but Marilyn Monroe
Has left the building
What do you say when Elvis' skirt is all blown up?
But if you don't believe that life's too short
I can be the death in you

You seemed so fine that last time I saw you
You seemed so fine watching the sunset
You looked so bored on the arm of that guy
How can you say all you can do is cry?
(All you can do is cry)

You seemed so fine that last time I saw you
You seemed so fine watching the sunset
You looked so bored on the arm of that guy
How can you say all you can do is cry?
(All you can do is cry)

All you do is cry
All you do is cry
Why do you cry?
