Where in the world am i going to?
why in the world am i leavin you?
oh i look for a chance, to make this the best its not just my way of savin some grace

i will not be the same
ill never let myself be the same
ill never move my head from your way cuz i dont wanna miss you again i didnt know where else to go with all of these days, oh sweet, bittersweet its harder to say, im going away love i guess its my way of saving the day

ill never move my head from your way

although your running out of my way i called your number after i prayed

ill not be the same

(repeat)

i guess im gonna miss you again
