I can't think of any way to free you
I won't think of a way to persuade you
I don't think I've found the answer to this
I can thank god for what you've shown me

Chorus:

All I can think of are ways to wast my time with you
All I can dream of is space that should be filled by you

Somehow you seem so untouchable
Open up your soul let me see you
Isn't it great how we all end up the same
I hope that you can get some love today

Chorus:

So take yourself into that zone
Into a place no one knows
Where you can put away your trust
And no one sees your lust
To control it isn't hard
When her touch is an upstart
