"Venezuelan Loser"

Go to school stare at girls girls that i'll always hate sit down now and do my math kill my teacher after class going home f*ck what's next hate those bullies brake their faces now to prom all dressed up all rejected and f*cked up

'Cause i'm just a venezuelan loser can't get nothing right it's just an illusion wanna' do something big say a revolution
'cause at the end i'm your standard kind of loser

College now all alone everyone said it'd be fun girls won't give their phone numbers won't date me 'cause i'm younger skipping class getting high i'm all f*cked up in my mind all depressed now got no friends can't wait for this s to end
