I'm longing tonight once again to roam
In a beautiful valley I could always call home
There's a girl I adore and I'm longing to see
In a beautiful yoho valley

My little yoho lady-o
And I'll sing you a song while the moon's rolling low
My little yoho lady-o
In a beautiful yoho valley

Oh silvery moon I'm so lonely tonight
To stroll once again in that beautiful light
Dream of a girl oh so happy and free
In a beautiful yoho valley

My little yoho lady-o
I'll sing you a song while the moon's rolling low
My little yoho lady-o
In a beautiful yoho valley
It seems when we met all my dreams had come true
I gazed in those beautiful eyes oh so blue
Your smile keeps lingering like a golden memory
Of a beautiful yoho valley

My little yoho lady-o
And I'll sing you a song while the moon's rolling low
My little yoho lady-o
In a beautiful yoho valley

My little yoho lady-o
And I'll sing you a song while the moon's rolling low
My little yoho lady-o
